Broccoli Pasta Salad

Ingredients:

Two 3.8 oz. cans of sliced, Black Olives 1 Broccoli Bunch (organic)
2 boxes Cherry Tomatoes (organic) One 1 lb. box of pasta, like Barilla Rotini 1/4 Red
Onion (or more to taste)
Italian Dressing of your choice

Directions:

1. Get your pot full of water to cook the pasta in and get it boiling while you prepare everything else.
2. Wash your produce and get all the above ingredients out, plus a big bowl, so you're ready to go.
3. After washing the produce, and draining the black olives from the can; cut all the cherry tomatoes in half, chop up the broccoli into small bites, and finely chop up your red onion. Add to the big bowl to toss together.
4. Meanwhile, when your water comes to a boil throw the pasta in the pot of boiling water and cook to al-dente or according to the instructions on the package.
5. Once pasta is done, drain it, and throw it in the bowl with the veggies.
6. Add your Italian Dressing to taste, toss it all together, and you're done!
7. Store in tupperware in the fridge.
8. Make ahead of time so it has a day or so to marinate!
